

Vinnell Arabia- A World of Difference
Senior Trainer, Gunnery/Tactics

Position location is in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Overview: Responsible for providing New Equipment Training (NET) assistance and evaluation to the unit in planning, and conducting gunnery and tactics training IAW the NET plan. Trains, assists and evaluates units in training, doctrine, gunnery, tactics and operations unique to the LAV-AG(S) A1 vehicle.

Duties/Responsibilities:

Prepares and conducts LAV-AG gunnery and tactics training. Rehearses upcoming LAV-AG classes/training with assigned or appointed interpreter/translator prior to conducting training. Trains and coaches LAV-AG crews through gunnery range firings. Assists the Chief Trainer, LAV-AG TST in the conduct of LAV-AG section tactical and gunnery training. Conducts after action reviews for each LAV-AG tactical and gunnery training event. Maintains control and accountability of equipment used to conduct LAV-AG tactical and gunnery training. Conducts After-Action Reviews as required. Prepares reports and schedules as required. Other duties as directed.

Educational Level: High School Graduate. Basic Course Graduate (NCO). An equivalent combination of college level courses, military and job site experience may be substituted.

Experience: Four (4) years of training and operational experience in a US Movement or Maneuver unit. Related experience in a Direct Fire Gunnery Program or unit. Former non-commissioned officer with leadership experience in an operational unit.

Specific knowledge, skills, ability, and requirements: Must be able to write well, read and understands technical and training manuals. Knowledge of current US Army Tactics, Training and Intelligence Doctrine, and gunnery programs. Possess a valid driver's license. Former Commissioned Officer or NCO. Go to "U.S. Applicants" at <http://www.vinnellarabia.com> for "Senior Trainer, Gunnery/ Tactics" and apply.